

Installation Case Studies Exam

1. What are the primary problems associated with residential remodeling projects?
 - A. Injury to members of installation team
 - B. Damage to customer's furniture, walls and other properties
 - C. Pulling into unpaved driveways
 - D. Both A and B
2. Ninety percent of residential installation problems usually come in the effort of:
 - A. Contacting the homeowner before you arrive at the installation site.
 - B. Contacting the primary safety manager on site
 - C. Contacting OSHA to set up a pre-installation inspection
 - D. Getting the stone pieces into the house
3. Problems that installation teams might encounter on new construction sites include:
 - A. Unfinished driveways, sidewalks, and other obstacles to getting into the home.
 - B. Utilities that are not fully installed
 - C. The installation date does not interfere with work done by other trades
 - D. All of the above
4. Who provides the general safety guidelines for multi-family apartment or condominium installations projects?
 - A. OSHA
 - B. Primary General Contractors
 - C. Department of Labor
 - D. None of the above
5. True or False: The two main problems associated with residential and multi-family locations are installers breaking bones from falls on the worksite or falling debris.
 - A. True
 - B. False
6. It is important for the installation crews to have insight into staging areas in order to:
 - A. Find designated break areas
 - B. Know where to begin work with hazards, materials and equipment checklists
 - C. Meet with other trade installations teams
 - D. None of the above

Continued on Next Page

7. Scaffolds above ____ feet must be tied to the structure of the building to eliminate potential collapse.
- A. 10
 - B. 20
 - C. 30
 - D. 40
8. Installers who work on scaffolds must wear a safety harness when working over:
- A. 6 feet
 - B. 10 feet
 - C. 15 feet
 - D. There is not minimum height for wearing a safety harness.
9. True or False: All light commercial work requires hardhats.
- A. True
 - B. False
10. True or False: Many government agencies and commercial building owners have safety requirements that are much more stringent than residential settings.
- A. True
 - B. False