

Exam – Body Protection PPE Overview

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F Employer's must perform and document a hazard assessment to determine if body protection may be require.
2. T F It is the employee's responsibility to inspect body protection before each use to ensure it is good condition.
3. T F Using body protection is not a way to prevent contaminants from being carried beyond the workplace.
4. T F Any body protection is good for all hazards.
5. T F You should wear body protection in accordance with the employer's PPE program and training.
6. T F Wearing body protection is a good hygiene practice.
7. T F If body protection is damaged, it may not provide the required protection and should be replaced.
8. T F An apron provides splash protection.
9. T F During welding and cutting, you should wear body protection that is appropriately designed for these activities.

(Select the best answer)

10. Which types of tasks may require body protection?

- A. Wet tasks
- B. Dusty tasks
- C. Tasks where chemical may splash
- D. All of the above