

Exam – Eye and Face Safety and PPE Overview

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F Eye injuries can lead to severe injuries including blindness.
2. T F Eye and face radiant energy hazards are created by tasks such as welding, cutting and lasers.
3. T F Eye and face PPE manufacturers are not required to mark their equipment.
4. T F Safety glasses are marked on each temple piece, the lens frame and the lens to indicate they meet the Z87.1 standard.
5. T F Employers must perform and document an assessment to identify workplace hazards including eye and face hazards.
6. T F Chemical splashes do not pose a hazard to an employee's eye and face.
7. T F Employees are required to inspect eye and face PPE prior to each use to ensure it is in good working order.
8. T F In general, eye and face PPE must be labeled with the manufacturer's identification mark and the Z87.1 mark.

(Select the best answer)

9. Employers must train employees on:
  - A. Proper selection of eye and face PPE
  - B. Eye and face donning and doffing procedures
  - C. Eye and face storage and maintenance procedures
  - D. All of the above
10. Eye and face hazards include:
  - A. Impact
  - B. Chemicals
  - C. Radiant energy
  - D. All of the above