

Exam – Foot Protection PPE Overview

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F Protective footwear with cuts in the footwear material should be replaced.
2. T F Protective footwear with objects piercing the sole should be replaced.
3. T F Any protective footwear will protect against any hazard.
4. T F The employer must perform and document a hazard assessment to determine foot hazards and the required foot protection employees must use.
5. T F It is the employee's responsibility to wear task/job specific protective footwear in accordance with the employer's hazard assessment.
6. T F Protective footwear should be inspected prior to each use to ensure it is good working order.
7. T F Conductive footwear should be worn by electrical workers.
8. T F Damaged protective footwear should be discarded and replaced.

(Select the best answer)

9. Which of the following are types of foot protection?

- A. Safety shoes (with composite or steel toe)
- B. Safety shoes with metatarsal guard
- C. Electrical hazard safety shoes
- D. All of the above

10. Which of the following are potential foot hazards?

- A. Falling objects
- B. Rolling objects
- C. Electrical shock
- D. All of the above