

Exam – Confined Space Hazards Overview

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F A confined space is defined as a space which is not designed for continuous occupancy and has limited means for entrance and exit.
2. T F Anyone can enter a confined space.
3. T F Permit required confined spaces must be marked by the employer.
4. T F Only trained and authorized personnel may enter a permit required confined space using the provisions of the employer's confined space entry program.
5. T F Serious injury and even death can occur when entering confined spaces improperly.
6. T F Contractors do not have to follow confined space entry procedures.
7. T F It is important for employees to be able to identify confined spaces.
8. T F The site should have a list of identified confined spaces for employee, contractor and visitor review.

(Select the best answer)

9. Examples of confined spaces include:
 - A. Tanks
 - B. Equipment housings/compartments
 - C. Manholes
 - D. All of the above
10. A permit required confined space is a confined space that contains:
 - A. Contains or has the potential to contain a hazardous atmosphere
 - B. Potential for engulfment
 - C. Inward converging or sloping walls
 - D. One or all of the above