

Exam – Hazard Communication Overview

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F Employers must make Safety Data Sheets (SDS's) readily available for hazardous chemicals in the workplace available for employee' review.
2. T F The definition of a hazardous chemical under OSHA's Hazard Communication Standard is any chemical that presents a physical hazard or a health hazard.
3. T F Employers must develop and implement a written Hazard Communication program.
4. T F Under the Hazard Communication Standard, labels are not required for hazardous chemicals.
5. T F It is important for employees to know where SDS's are located for the hazardous chemicals they use in the workplace.
6. T F Intermediate use containers of hazardous chemical do not need to be labeled.
7. T F Incidents involving hazardous chemicals must be reported to your Supervisor.
8. T F Under the Hazard Communication Standard, employers must train employees on all components of the site's Hazard Communication program, including specific hazard training for the chemicals they work with.

(Select the best answer)

9. Physical hazards of chemicals include which of the following:

- A. Combustible
- B. Oxidizer
- C. Compressed gas
- D. All of the above

10. Health hazards of hazardous chemicals include:

- A. Carcinogenic
- B. Toxic
- C. Sensitizer
- D. All of the above