

Exam – Stone Cutter and Splitter Safety Overview

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F A safety risk with stone cutters are their rotating blades.
2. T F Hydraulic pressure is a safety risk from stone splitter.
3. T F It is OK to operate a stone cutter or splitter that has an identified safety hazard/deficiency?
4. T F It is OK to by-pass a machine guard if it's just for a short period of time.
5. T F When operating a stone cutter or splitter you must follow the equipment manufacturers and any employer specific operating instructions.
6. T F You should report any stone cutter and splitter safety hazards/deficiencies to your supervisor.
7. T F Stone cutters and splitters should be inspected prior to each use to ensure they are in good working order.
8. T F Loose clothing and jewelry pose an entanglement hazard when operating stone cutters.

(Select the best answer)

9. Which of the following can be used as a machine guard for stone cutters and splitters?
 - A. Two-hand controls
 - B. Barrier guards
 - C. Light curtains and proximity sensors
 - D. All of the above
10. Employer required PPE for operating stone cutters and splitters may include:
 - A. Safety glasses with side shields
 - B. Gloves
 - C. Safety shoes
 - D. All of the above