

Exam – Cutting Hand Tool Safety

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F Only employer provided cutting hand tools should be used in the workplace.
2. T F It's OK to use a hand cutting tool as a screw driver or prying tool.
3. T F Always make cutting motions toward your body.
4. T F Defective/broken cutting hand tools should never be used.
5. T F Never throw a cutting hand tool.
6. T F Fixed blade cutting hand tools should be stored with their blades exposed.
7. T F Dull cutting hand tools work the best and prevent injuries.
8. T F If a cutting hand tool doesn't cut, apply more pressure to get the job done.

(Select the best answer)

9. PPE that should worn when using exposed fixed blade cutting hand tools include:
 - A. Kevlar gloves
 - B. Kevlar sleeves
 - C. Both A and B
 - D. None of the above
10. Exposed fixed blade cutting hand tools should never be stored:
 - A. On work surfaces
 - B. In tool boxes
 - C. In drawers
 - D. All of the above