

Exam – Accident Prevention

True (T) or False (F)

1. T F Some of the most common accidents involve material handling tasks.
2. T F It is important to follow work rules in order to prevent accidents.
3. T F “Slowing down to speed up” is a method to get the job done efficiently and also prevent accidents.
4. T F It is OK to skip a step or steps in a procedure as long as you are careful.
5. T F If you are unsure on how to complete a task, you should stop and get help from someone who knows how to do the task.
6. T F An employee posing with crossed arms and /or scratching his head or chin are possible signs they do not know how to complete the task properly/safely. They could possibly be ready to take an unsafe act and you should intervene and see if you or someone else can help them.
7. T F If you believe a work procedure is wrong, you should report it to your Supervisor so that a review can be performed and the procedure changed as appropriate.
8. T F Distractions can be a contributing factor which can cause an accident.

(Select the best answer)

9. Which of the following are unsafe conditions that you should immediately report?
 - A. Poor housekeeping
 - B. Disabled or missing machine guards
 - C. Improper chemical storage
 - D. All of the above.
10. Which of the following can employees do to prevent accidents?
 - A. Be on the lookout for unsafe acts, situations and conditions
 - B. Report unsafe acts, situations and conditions immediately
 - C. Stop work and get help if they are unsure what to do
 - D. All of the above